

SPONSORSHIP OF BOSTON RED SOX

JX Nippon Oil & Energy (President: Tsutomu Sugimori) and its subsidiary company, JX Nippon Oil & Energy USA Inc. (President: Motoshi Sunami) is pleased to announce its partnership with the Boston Red Sox Major League Baseball team. This sponsorship will begin 2015 season with spring training

During the season, home game attendees will see the ENEOS logo on the centerfield video board panel at Fenway Park. As part of the sponsorship agreement, ENEOS ads will be featured in Red Sox Magazine.

ENEOS high-quality synthetic motor oils are widely available in the United States, and many automotive brands and other major Asian Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) built vehicles are shipped from the factory containing our products because they are developed to perform optimally with the tighter tolerances of Asian auto manufacturers. Now we are expanding our partnerships in the North American market to let all drivers know they can expect higher performance by using ENEOS products. Our association with the Boston Red Sox shows our commitment to high performance, both in baseball and the automotive industry.

For more information please visit www.eneos.us/.

<ENEOS logo>

